As far as I can tell, this place just looks like hell Controlled by hate and greed, self-centered goals and dreams
Don't try to take a smile, it's unlikely if you'll say
That it's alright

Time to mend this long sad story
Start to talk and say we're sorry
Whose to blame, no need to argue
Can't you see it starts within you

Why should kids be stuck with monsters?
Drown the youth on hostile water
Victims of a tragic battle
Something I'm sure they can't handle

Lend a hand along the way
Time will heal and make the world okay
See the warning, earth is dying
20 years this home will be a mess

Count the years of endless conflicts
Life is short but still we waste it
Hours just pass and go unnoticed
When will we learn how to cherish?

Lend a hand along the way
Time will heal and make the world okay
See the warning, earth is dying
20 years this home will be a mess
