I've been with you for 20years
We had good times, we she'd some tears
Together we made it right.
Life beat me up from time to time
I lost some teeth, but I don't mind
My brother, you're doing right.

You give me hope, you hold me when I fall
You're my friend, my partner in crime
In all those years, you never told me lies
But sometimes you poison my mind, you poison my mind

People come and people go
There's one thing that I know
That you, you'll always be around.
You stick to me like superglue.
And that is what I like about you
You never let me down.
Another drink, another night
Another town, another fight
Together we'll make it right

You give me hope, you hold me when I fall
You're my friend, my partner in crime
In all those years, you never told me lies
mind

You give me hope, you hold me when I fall
You're my friend, my partner in crime
In all those years, you never told me lies
But sometimes you poison my mind...

You give me hope, you hold me when I fall
You're my friend, my partner in crime
In all those years, you never told me lies
But sometimes you poison my mind, you poison my
mind
You poison my mind, you poison my mind, you poison
my mind

You poison my miiiiind [x3]
