When that bile burns your teeth
You'll know you really are in love
Hey baby, it's just the acid with the lethal tongue-kiss
That gears you off completely

That motif screams heaven
Like something umbilical
When it defies
And the opiate is spiteful

Threatening your ovum
And your ravaged torso
Bring us the still born and the midwife
And complete the stunning response to the spite

Dance away
Shimmy down the birth canal

When the cervix smiles
Such a wicked smile

Dream of your heroine
And let's begin
Dream of your heroine
And let's begin your death scene
Your death scene
