"Slip Away"

I was thinking about the things you said that day
I never really had to go back so far away
So take time to leave your old shoe for a while
Was it good for you as it was good for me?

I want it so badly can't help myself and me
I've never had it this good
But my life goes and slowly slips away

But my life slowly slips away so let it ride my love

When I think, I think I never had to think
You were brought up that way girl so far away
So look up look down come tell me all around
Was it good for you as it was good for me?
