On my way up you reach out and grab my hand
And my eyes shake leaving this wonderland
So many dreams sacrificed.
So many hopes dead inside
Rings awake me stinging my head with light
And the day grows bigger than I can climb
So much has passed to regret.
So much I tried to forget
I'm only asking to get myself back to life
Tomorrow comes. Tomorrow brings. Tomorrow
answers
Everything
Tomorrow tries. Tomorrow fails. Tomorrow lands on Broken wings
Tomorrow hopes. Tomorrow speaks. Tomorrow
answers
Everything
On my way up I try to remember what
And my mind aches thinking it's all too much
So many fools cannot see.
So many fools like me
Rings awake me filling my heart with weight
And it makes it easy to take the bait
So many cells to break.
So many roads to take
I'm only asking to get myself back to life
Tomorrow comes. Tomorrow brings. Tomorrow
answers
Everything
Tomorrow tries. Tomorrow fails. Tomorrow lands on
Broken wings
Why be afraid to take a fall?
I know that time will change it all
Tomorrow hopes. Tomorrow speaks. Tomorrow
answers
Everything
