spaceship, take off and fly
there is no turning back when you arrive to a whole other world outside
far away from here

blinded by the stars in her eyes running away from her lies searching for a way to paradise
far away from here

she floats around the globe just like she owns it
?hero makes her fit the smaller clothing? she's sweet 16 and wants a rolex presidential golden, guestlist and she rolls in she looks into the mirror and don't like what she sees she's curvy but wants to share a cool phyc she's living through the tv and the magazine passport she wants to board a spaceship to celebrity she loves life, rolls the dice, hopes it's high she so admirers of they lifes with no inside confused in the cocoon that she's wrapped inside her skills are green so she dreams of living in the otherside
living in a love romance, star studied, astronomies spaceship to send her round in space, like prodigy she's blinded by the lights, she books to fly online she's hoping to arrive in paradise, right

far away from here

the writing's on the wall, especially in the posters but nobody knows she'll be locked up alone in her room and no one goes there sign on the handle please do not disturb she's on sky talking to a modelling agent and she's giving him a twirl

you can be the next naomi just show me they ain't phony
i can't touch it through the screens, ah fuck it sweetheart, lets meet told her "i can you famous, million dollar pay check, front cover zoo shoot, that when you know you made it pick up in mercedes, drop off at the station, stars in their eye, "tonight matthew, i'm gonna be famous"
and if i'm stood there waiting, you are gonna change it and i cant get to zero, hero, save it from this world, cuz i aint miss world but i be miss universe when the spaceship returns ha ha, she thinks she'll be miss universe when the spaceship returns

far away from here

far away from here

far away from here
