Want to keep it a secret
Don't want to tell anyone
Won't tell anybody
Never tell anybody

I want to be happy
Just a little happiness is all I need

Our little finger linked in a promise, never to let go Tears that fell after a scolding won't stop until the 5 o'clock chime

I want to remain immature
I want to remain unfinished
Everything including my bad parts
I want to remain me

I wan stay protectet
I want remain loved

The rainn spills drip-drop, change into sweet candies
Tears that fell in apologies won't stop until the 5 o'clock chime

I want to remain excited
Want to become round
Like the wheel just ahead of us
And run off
Go round

Our little finger linked in a promise, never to let go
The rainn spills drip-drop, change into sweet candies
God, look close, I want to tell you I love you

By my feet that I trip over
You can hear the sound of the flowers
