4:26

Used to think about what I would grow up to be
Good or bad right or wrong it was no harm to me
Was a time in my life when I wish I'd have known
You can't gamble with fate you might end up alone
Meet me where the feeling is high
Let the sound surround you
Meet me at the top of the sky
Where the colors fly around you
Well I'm lost in a world of dismay
Nothing can take me away
From you
Left you back while I worked very hard to succeed
All the distance I've gone makes it hard to believe
You and I were so close now we're so far apart
Remembered the feeling we shared in our heart
Meet me where the feeling is high
Let the sound surround you
Meet me at the top of the sky

Where the colors fly around you
Well I'm lost in a world of dismay
Nothing can take me away
From you
Again and again you return to haunt me in my dreams
See your eyes how they glisten your hair how it gleams
And I know I will miss you when you have to go
I return to my place until night lets me know
Meet me where the feeling is high
Let the sound surround you
Meet me at the top of the sky
Where the colors fly around you
Well I'm lost in a world of dismay
Nothing can take me away
From you
Away from you
Nothing can take me
No
Nothing can take me away
From you
Nothing can take me away
Away from you

No
Nothing can take me away
Away from you
