[Verse 1]

There must be more good women than men percentage wise

So her chance of having a husband just minimize

That's why a lot of girls claim they ain't into guys

And mess with other girls part time to improvise

I knew she wouldn't vibe

No I seen her inner eyes

But I'm like any other guy trying to get in her thighs

She telling me about how black people should enterprise

And I'm like, if you don't get your ass in this ride from
enterprise

That I rented yesterday and gotta have in by 5

With the gas fully filled up like I didn't drive

Told her I had a girl, nah fuck it I didn't lie

Told her this rap game is alright. I'm just getting by.

She had a lil weed and we get a lil high

And I'm looking in her eyes and I'm loving her vibe

Told me back in 95' she fell in love with the tribe

Boo back in 92' I was just like you

Please don't be confused by the ice and jewels

I'm like any other nigga buy ice to stay cool

Like any other nigga that claim they hate school
And think yeah Free's banging but she's no Rachel

Chorus

We ball til we fall

Hit the mall

After we

Hit don't call

We fill your lives

With nothing but lies

And I would like to

Apologize

But you can't stand right here

And tell me everything is going to be alright

Cause until the day a real man stands up

I'm going to have to improvise

[Verse 2]

Was it something I did wrong?

Yeah I know I'm wrong

She's at home alone and I'm always gone

Hate it when she mad but more when she passive

Now she on the internet looking for classes

Out of state though, man that hurt yo

But I got work though, and I'm at work yo

And she don't call a lot

And when she do she pouring out her heart

You never listen to me then the call drop hmmm

And I promised her everything

Told her when I get a deal I'll get her a wedding ring

But when I got my deal I was back in the ring

Fighting my urges, strip club splurges

Never had money so I feel like a virgin

And I'm trying to break the bank's cherry

Trying to see can I afford Canaries, with a Ferrari, and a dinner date with Halle Berry?

When from 50 g's to fifteen hundred in a week

Now I'm trying to call..one ring...two rings...seven rings...eight rings

Her mother picked up the phone

Like she in school and she don't stay here no more

I guess there's more good women than men
percentage wise

So her chance of having a husband just minimize

I guess that's why she says she ain't into guys

And focus on school full-time to improvise

[Chorus]

No no, you can't stand right here

And tell me everything is gonna be alright

Cause until that real man stands up

I'm going to have to improvise (x3)
