Why would she make calls out the blue?
Now I'm awake sleep isn't new

Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will unless you will Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will then play you will
I pray you will

Misses so fly crash lands in my room
Can't waste no time she might leave soon

Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will, you do
Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will, one day you will
I pray you will

When I grab your neck I touch your soul
Take off your cool then lose control

Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will, you will, you will Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will if you will
I pray you will

I wish this song would really come true
I admit I still fantasize about you, about you

Hey, hey, hey, hey, don't say you will, you will, you will
Hey, hey, hey, hey, please say, you will for real
I pray you will
