Baby, baby
Baby, please don't go
You make me crazy
I've waited all day long

Caf  is closing, grab your coat and
Maybe we can follow where the evening's going
Night's upon us, don't you wanna
See how this will end?

I watch the sunrise
Reflected in your eyes
It's crazy how time flies
When I spend it holding you all night
Watch you watch the sunrise

Let my kisses park
Where they belong
Telling you that I've been saving up
Since you've been gone

It's getting cold out, let's go home now
We can light a fire that never goes out
We'll explode then afterglow
Until another day begins

With the sunrise
Reflected in your eyes
It's crazy how time flies
When I spend it holding you all night
Watch you watch the sunrise
Watch you watch the sunrise

Baby, baby
Baby, please don't go
You make me crazy
I've waited all day long

For the sunrise
For the sunrise
For the sunrise
See it in your eyes

For the sunrise
(Sunrise in your eyes)
For the sunrise
