Hook:
I'm 'bout to set up shop right now
So if you wanna rock come and cop right now
I'm tryna get rid of what i got right now
Thats why i got the fiends on the block right now, like (uh huh uh huh)
the fiends be like

Jag:
You lookin at the best, ain't no way to compare man
Throwin blows soon as you stare man
Come get you a pair man
Hallows have you stiff as a square dance
Homie gon' be holding your square pants
Try if you dare man

Blowin Cali Kush in the air man
Fly like air trans
They say i gotta peso habbit
I love money too hard and stay so lavish
I'm A grade they so average

Cassidy:

Yo i used to cook work on my momma's stove
On the block runnin with the rock like i was signed to Hov
My metaphors is the cure for the common cold
Your a pre Madonna i'm on point like Madonna nose
Pimpin i'm the truth i spit all kind of flows
And i be pimpin like snoop i get all kind of hoes
I make her lick the lollipop like i'm from HollyGrove
Put on the rubber i fuck her and then its time to roll
I just line 'em up do 'em like dominoes
And slam 'em on they back then tell 'em vamanos
I only do vagina holes i don't fuck with men
I use tools and move rock like them construction men
And i ain't ever tryna go bankrupt again
To be fucked up again down to my last buck again
But if i ever seem to have bad luck again, fuck it then
I'm cuttin that crack up again
