As we kicked around downtown, waiting for the sun to rise,
we watched the clouds,
take the shape of a Chevrolet.
And the way that I'm feeling is the color of my lover's eyes, she caught me looking the other way, thinking finally of our better days.

As she climbs her way
up to the top of me,
we look down on everyone.
And we proclaimed that we don't know how long we'll be
as we kiss the world goodbye,
kiss the world goodbye.
And we'll be gone,
into the sky and out of our minds.
Watch the faces and buildings and cars getting smaller
with time.
Wish us luck.

Trippin' on a flat tire, dial up the triple A.
Time is running out for our escape,
so much for that chevrolet.
Eyes shut tight as we venture to another place,
as we listen to the music play,
I can't remember what I had to say.

As she climbs her way
up to the top of me
we look down on everyone
and we proclaim that we don't know how long we'll be
as we kiss the world goodbye,
kiss the world goodbye.
And we'll be gone.
into the sky and out of our minds.
Watch the faces and buildings and cars getting smaller
with time.
Wish us luck.

As she climbs her way
up to the top of me
we look down on everyone
and we proclaim that we don't know how long we'll be,
as we kiss the world goodbye,
kiss the world goodbye,
kiss the world goodbye.
And we'll be gone
into the sky and out of our minds.
Watch the faces and buildings and cars getting smaller
with time.
Wish us luck.
