The robots march in line to get to work
Because it's almost punch-in time.
We've traded in our lives for deadlines only met overtime.
And for each hour they own us we work towards our bonus.
We've been following the script for so long we forgot
who we are.

Just another day nothing ever changes.
How did my life become 9 to 5?
We've been following the script for so long we forgot
who we are.
We can only work this shift for so long

Lets shake hands and talk statistics as we try our best to act pretentious.
I still smile everyday
And make believe that life was meant to be this way.

But inside I'm starving for something to real.
We've been following the script for so long we forgot
who we are.
But inside I'm starving
For something real

Just another day nothing ever changes.
How did my life become 9 to 5?
We've been following the script for so long we forgot
who we are.
We can only work this shift for so long

It comes down to: work. eat. sleep. repeat.
Work. eat. sleep. repeat.
Repeat...

Just another day nothing ever changes.
How did my life become 9 to 5?
We've been following the script for so long we forgot
who we are.
We can only work this shift for so long

Just another day nothing ever changes.
How did my life become 9 to 5?
We've been following the script for so long we forgot
who we are.
We can only work this shift for so long

Work. eat. sleep. repeat.
