My beloved I have waited so long
How can it be daylight keeps us apart
Make me assured it is you and that no-one sees us

Oh my princess your eyes shine so bright
For your love I will give up my life
Make me...

Be aware of my father the king
If he sees us he will surely lock me in the tower
Make me...

Come to me at night
Whistle our tune at the feet of the tower
Make me...

Then I shall let out my hair
it will light up the night so you'll find your way

Make me...

He stayed with his princess all through the night at dawn came the king
Make me...

Evil tongues came from far their minds filled with envy
The princess with the golden hair shall not see her beloved again

The king sentenced the young knight to death blind for his daughters prayers
Make me...

When the third day came to an end
She drove a dagger through her ancient heart
Make me...
