The way you move around just like the footballer
That you once were until you started kissing girls
Or so you tell me anyway, I'm thinking to myself
I hate the thought of you with someone else

Oh, I love the way, the very thought of you rushes through
Flowing out into and warming up my veins
I love to sink into the world of you, willing to Take any excuse to have you in my brains

Darling, when you means you
It is the sweetest word I ever heard, it shines like new
Woah, darling, nothing is left to think of you
So writing this is all there is for me to do
All there is for me to do, all there is for me to do

Just the pure memory of the way you say the words
You use excites me like a substance of abuse
You light me up until I've got nothing left but a smile
Just wishing to be near you for a little while

I love the way, the very thought of you rushes through
The flowing out into and warming up my veins
I love to sink into the world of you, willing to Take any excuse to have you in my brain

Darling, when you means you
It is the sweetest word I ever heard, it shines like new
Woah, darling, nothing is left to think of you
So writing this is all there is for me to do
All there is for me to do, all there is for me to do

And every minute I don't spend with you
I'll write into this song
And every kiss I want to give to you
I'll sing, I'll sing into this song

Darling, when you means you
It's the sweetest word I ever heard, it shines like new
Woah, darling, nothing is left to think of you
So writing this is all there is for me to do

Oh, darling, when you means you
It's the sweetest word I ever heard, it shines like new
Woah, darling, nothing is left to think of you
So writing this is all there is for me to do
All there is for me to do, all there is for me to do
