Ahhhhh ahhhhh (ohh...)
Ahhhhh... (oohh... ooh...)
(Music)

There for me, through all of my ups and downs
And what I feel you always seem to know
You find the words, when I need comforting
And dry my eyes, that's why I love you so

More than a friend, you're my first love
I can always depend on my first love

Feel like I, have known you all my life
I can't explain how close we are
When something's wrong, you know how to make it right
That's why you stay close to my heart

More than a friend, you're my first love
I can always depend on my first love

There's a star in my eye
A chill up my spine
A melody in my heart
You are, my very first love
You're the sweet lullaby
My first kiss goodnight
The beat in my heart,
Music, my very first love

More than a friend, you're my first love
I can always depend on my first love

With you in my life, I'm not lonely at all
And if there were tears, you'd catch them all
Cuz you know my pain
And you know my joy
There's a secret between us
Only pretty piano chords...

There's a star in my eye
A chill up my spine

A melody in my heart
(Music, my very first love)
You're the sweet lullaby
My first kiss goodnight
The beat in my heart,
Music, my very first love...

(I sing)
I sing because I'm happy
Cuz music sets me free...

You're the sweet lullaby
My first kiss goodnight
The beat in my heart,
Music, my very first love...

Ooh...
