He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)

He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)

I, I dont know what happened,
I mean, i really thought i had it,
Had it get away from me,
Thought i locked it up;
and hid away the key,

I looked everywhere its missing,
Im like,How the hell its missing
And the only one who knows,
Is the one that i've been playing close,
And now i know he does.

So subliminal, Strong attraction,
So subliminal, Kept me laughing,
Didnt see the signals, So distracted,
Now im a victim of his crime and passion.

He stole my heart,
He stole my heart,
like a thief in the night,
He took my heart from me,
Faster than my eyes could see,
He stole my heart,
He stole my heart,
like a thief in the night,
And he didn't have to go and take,
the love i woulda gave to him anyway,(Yeah)

He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)

He stole my heart away

He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)

I'll never be the same again.

Now it seems im falling,
Waist deep involved in,
some kind of love affair,
And apparently he cares,
And its all so clear,
Everday we got closer,
Slowly i lost composure,
And i didnt understand,
That the whole scheme of his plan,
Was to get my heart in hand.

So subliminal, Strong attraction,
So subliminal, Kept me laughing,
(?), So distracted,
Now im a victim of his crime and passion.

He stole my heart,
He stole my heart,
like a thief in the night,
He took my heart from me,
Faster than my eyes could see,
He stole my heart,
He stole my heart,
like a thief in the night,
And he didn't have to go and take,
the love i woulda gave to him anyway,(Yeah)

He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)

He stole my heart away

He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)

I'll never be the same again.

Theres no reason to be alarmed,
Theres no need to put him away,
Because in this case i havnt lost,
as much as i have gained,
He may have stole my heart,

But he fills me up with love,
and forever i have changed,
i have changed because;

He took it (Yeah) (He took it)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)

He stole my heart,
He stole my heart,
like a thief in the night,
He took my heart from me,
Faster than my eyes could see,
He stole my heart,
He stole my heart,
like a thief in the night,
And he didn't have to go and take,
the love i woulda gave to him anyway,(Yeah)

He took it (Yeah) (Like a thief in the night)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)

He stole my heart away

He took it (Yeah) (he, he, he came..)
He took it (Yeah)
He took it (Yeah)

I'll never be the same again.

Like a thief in the night,
like a thief in the night,
He changed me,
il never be the same again.
