

Karla Bonoff

"Faces In The Wind"

Visit "Faces In The Wind" on MotoLyrics.com

I went down to the sea
To see if you were sleeping
If your dreams covered all you cares
Like a ship flying three sheets to the wind
You might have been crazy
With all the things you've been

I went down to the sea
To lay beside you sleeping
And you woke and told me of your life
Like a ship been caught inside a wind
You might have been broken
With all the things you've been

Chorus:
Good-bye
Too many faces have I

To see that only one has ever been
Too many faces in the wind

I went down to the sea
To hear your storytelling
And your eyes followed me around
Like a light been turning in the wind
You might have been crazy
With all the things you've been

Chorus

Visit Karla Bonoff page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.