In your eyes I see tomorrow
My heart is waking
I won't let fear of pain and sorrow
Steal this chance that's waiting

Out in that mist of uncertainty
There is one thing I can see

There ain't nothing love can't do
No mountain love can't move
So give your heart to that light
That burns so bright
No matter what we go through
There ain't nothing love can't do

I'm no angel in shining armor
Fighting battles that are yours to win
And I'm no devil - no martyr
I walk beside you as your friend

And when the road is rough and steep
I know we'll find the strength we need

There ain't nothing love can't do
No mountain love can't move
So give your heart to that light
That burns so bright
No matter what we go through
There ain't nothing love can't do
There ain't nothing love can't do
No mountain love can't move
So give your heart to that light
That burns so bright
No matter what we go through
There ain't nothing love can't do
