Mmm...mmm...

I don't wanna be a fool, I don't wanna be a fool for love

No, no, I wont, no

Hey, no, ooh...

I know that people do go through changes, yeah

But this just don't make no damn sense

If were gonna keep sayin we love one another, yeah, yeah

Well, then we better stop fightin and arguin

Cause baby, Ive heard Im sorry too many, many times before

Now I know better

It hurts to hold on to this kind of love even more

No, Im not crazy

I wont be a fool, a fool for love

Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy

Im not gonna choose, choose for you

Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy

I know it's time to go when I feel lonely

When Im layin in your arms and it don't feel right, oh

Cause every time I feelin up you try to bring me down

So I feel good knowin I don't need you around

Cause I know, I know that I can feel this bad all by myself, hoo, yeah

And maybe that's my best bet

Startin this time Im gonna think selfishly

And never depend on someone else for keepin me

happy, oh, no, no

I wont be a fool, a fool for love

Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy, oh, no

Im not gonna choose, choose for you

Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy, oh...

I-I-I wont be a fool, a fool for love
Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy
Im not gonna choose, choose for you
Cause I know I'd rather be alone than be here unhappy, ooh, yeah

Im never gonna be a fool for love
Id rather be alone, just give it up
Don't make no sense to be in love
And be here unhappy, oh, no

It might feel good on a lonely night
But layin in your arms today aint right
Id rather lose you than lose my mind
