I still cry for baby Jesus
I still pray when I'm alone
And when I'm lost He'll come to find me
Because He died to save my soul

When I can't walk He's there to carry
When I speak He hears my words
When I wake and I have nothing
He sends me Gold, Francence and Mer

I still cry for baby Jesus
I still pray when I'm alone
And when I'm lost He'll come to find me
Because He died to save my soul

When I cry my tears of sorrow
When my heart will only ache
And if I'm troubled when I'm sleeping
He will hold me until I wake

I still cry for baby Jesus
I still pray when I'm alone
And when I'm lost He'll come to find me
Because He died to save my soul
Because He died to save my soul
Because He died to save my soul
