"Black Whistler"

Two shots in the morning, take it easy on yourself
A banging head from yesterday
Pidgeons flap so freely, now the landlord kicks the door
Fetch your chair, it's not that hard

"cause we're so happy
I said we're happy at being sad

So wake up, oh wake up
"cause I don't wanna fight with you no more
So wake up, foh wake up
We'll forget about the jungle on the floor
We can forget about the jungle on the floor

One is for my love, and the other for my hate
I guess that really sums us up

"cause we're so happy
I said we're happy at being sad

So wake up, oh wake up
"cause I don't wanna fight with you no more
So wake up, foh wake up
We'll forget about the jungle on the floor
We can forget about the jungle on the floor
We can forget about the jungle on the floor
