Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides
Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides

Step out of the shadows, send the children to their saints
You create these zombies, just to keep them from their saints
No communication as the master's cheat and steal
Stars and constellations now I notice who you are

Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides
Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides
Come on

No retaliation said the poet to his kin
Separate the idols and commit your
Deadly sin
Love is put aside while you finish what you start
I collect the numbers, You protect my heart

Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides
Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides

Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides
Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides

No retaliation said the poet to his kin
Separate the idols and commit your
Deadly sin
Love is put aside while you finish what you start
I collect the numbers, You protect my heart

Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides

Come on, by my side
Come on, both sides
