"When The Frost Took The Lakes"

Visit "When The Frost Took The Lakes" on MotoLyrics.com

It all started when the frost took the
lakes
it all ended at the same time.
it all lasted for a second or two
it all lasted for eternity...
I saw all the source of life lading away
the sun will forget to rise tomorrow.
Spending the rest of my time strolling in woods
I saw the moon crying again...
It all gave rise to wintry snowstorm it all stopped the wind, the silence came in.
it all blinded us, it all took the sight

it all was the vision of the last winter...
I saw all the source of life fading away
the sun will forget to rise tomorrow.
Spending the rest of my life scrolling in woods
I saw the moon crying again...
It all started when the frost took the
lakes
it all ended at the same time.
it all lasted for a second or two
it all lasted for eternity...
