Kashmir - Just a Phase

This is just a phase we've got to make another day the wounds will heal again Walking on the stairs may seem a little hard to bear but there will be an end When we do it right I'll take you for a short line drive and we don't have to talk

When you're there, turn around and let me know

Send me to an isle when you see creatures in my smile I'll do a better one
The easier it sounds the harder you get off the ground you're like a setting sun There's no time to explain we've got to catch an early plane
and we don't have to talk

When you're there turn around and let me know
When you're there turn around and let me know

When you're there turn around and let me know
When you're there turn around and let me know
When you're there turn around and let me know
