I miss you so much boy
will we be coming on again don't ever lose your ropes this man is hanging by the ends I owe you so much time yes you might say it isn't like that at all but now it's coming back to you these open moments that I blew rocket brothers crack and burst if they can't meet upon the verge of breaking into separate parts that was not written in our cards now you got someone to protect someone you cannot reject

but I was buried in the mines I found it hard to stop you found me very hard to find but now that you've made way I'd better tie together these ropes again and throw the times right back to you and all the chances that I blew

those rocket brothers on the verge we should be careful' cause it could burst and we're not lonely anymore lonely as we were before and now there is someone to protect
someone you cannot reject something I will not neglect
