"Room For Happiness"

Sometimes I wish I never felt
The influence of you
Cause now I feel the disconnect,
Like an open wound
Where you once were, there is a space
That runs as deep as hell
But every morning when I wake I tell myself
Don't be fooled by your emptiness,
There's so much more room for happiness
Don't be fooled by your emptiness,
There's so much more room for happiness
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Sometimes it's worse to have lost
Than to have never had at all
Cause it's a curse to feel loved
Then to feel it all dissolved
Where you once were, there is a space
That runs as deep as hell
But every morning when I wake I tell myself
Don't be fooled by your emptiness,
There's so much more room for happiness
Don't be fooled by your emptiness,
There's so much more room for happiness
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Don't be fooled by your emptiness,
There's so much more room for happiness
Don't be fooled by your emptiness,
There's so much more room for happiness
Yeah, yeah, yeah
