Verse 1:

Hey girl now what's your name,
Lemme get to know you lemme buy you a drank,
Lemme take you home where we can get insane,
I got what you want girl I can bring the pain,
Kasland man I'm well known with fame,
I see that you want me no need to spit no game,
I put all these other guys down to shame,
Cause I know how to please you and they can't do the same,
I wanna see you move like a hurricane,
So shake it for me girl while I turn up the flame,
I wanna see you go up and down like a crane,
But I already forgot girl what's your name?

Chorus (x2):

What's your name girl you so fine,
Shake that thang girl you always on my mind,
I can make it rain girl you one of a kind,
And I can bring the pain girl I wanna make you mine.

Verse 2:

Sittin' In The club lookin' so damn fine,
I really want you girl I wanna make you mine,
I don't need to use no pick up line,
You ask me for the time it's eleven fifty-nine,
Damn it's gettin' late we should head back to my place,
Cause you're just the girl that fits my taste,
So gimme a chance I promise I'll be good,
I'll treat you like no other man possibly could,
With Kasland in your life you'll enjoy every night,
I'll treat you so good and I'll do it so right,
Pardon my manners back at the club,
You was lookin' so fine and I was being dumb,
I know how to treat a girl,
I know how to rock your world,
I know how to turn you on,
And I know how to make it fun,
And when I get started you know I'm always on a run,

No pick up lines girl I'm all game,
All that pick up line shit's way too lame,

No need for that girl I got fame,
Why can't I remember sorry what's your name?

Chorus (x2):

What's your name girl you so fine,
Shake that thang girl you always on my mind,
I can make it rain girl you one of a kind,
And I can bring the pain girl I wanna make you mine.

Verse 3:

You'd think by now I'd remember your name,
But it ain't my fault girl you're the one to blame,
Cause you're so damn cute with the way you move,
I wanna get with you and get you in the mood,
Yeah girl you know I want you,
I ain't gon' fuck but you know I want to,
Lemme get to know you a little better right here,
Like yeah... You know you want me,
You lookin' delicious and I'm feelin' hungry,
Shake it for me girl no need to hide it,
I want my booty you can call me a pirate,
I want what's good and you know that's you,
Come with me you should and you know that's true,
Come on girl no need to lie,
I know you noticed me out the corner of your eye,
Thinkin' look at that guy he's oh so fly,
Lemme talk to you girl, lemme say hi,
I ain't gon' let you just walk right by,
I know you want me I can see it in your eye,
Oh my, you're so cute,
What's your name girl I wanna talk to you.

Chorus (x3):

What's your name girl you so fine,
Shake that thang girl you always on my mind,
I can make it rain girl you one of a kind,
And I can bring the pain girl I wanna make you mine.
