"Denial Of Life"

Hear you screaming out for help
See you reaching out for a hand

No solutions in this time of hate
No emotions in your dirty faith

No escape! No escape! No escape! No!

From the cradle to the grave
You've been denied your honest life
'cause this system you were born in will fall apart by it's own pride

No escape! No escape! No escape! No!

There's no escape for the human race,
in this rusty cage you'll stay for an age.

Controlling powers have been failing,
they have been taking over by greedy wolves.
You were all born in aging shrouds and as victims you've been reborn

There's no escape for the human race,
in this rusty cage you'll stay for an age.

Hear you screaming out for help
See you reaching out for a hand

No solutions in this time of hate
No emotions in your dirty faith

No escape!
