ohhh ohhh ohhh

They say a dream is a fantasy,
For some is just an illusion, Sometimes a dream is hard to reach Now you see for me a dream is all I had
It had to be my reality.
It was my only right out of poverty, and the suffer of life,
So I could even see my dream far away But thank God he use my given talent to help me step up on this big stage where I am going to share and showcase my gift and passion for music, Now world here I am
Come share my joy and listen to the first chapter of me
Kat Deluna
GNB let the southern begin 9 lives hahahahaha (laugh)
