You've been droppin' hints about the things you want
A storybook wife in a house on a corner lot Talkin' 'bout settling down is a little too much, too soon
I don't wanna marry you, Honey
But, I wouldn't mind the Honeymoon

There's no need to rush we oughta take it slow
We need time but we don't need to stop the show
I'm not cut out to be a blushing bride, in June
I don't wanna marry you, Honey
But I wouldn't mind the honeymoon

Bridge:

I don't wanna marry you, Honey Now Honey don't look
so sad
We can still have a honeymoon Is that so bad?

The Poconoes look like fun, that's what I've read Celebrate love in a heart shaped, king-sized bed
Stay up all night long, we can always sleep till noon
I don't wanna marry you, Honey
But I wouldn't mind a honeymoon

Bridge:

I don't wanna marry you, Honey Now Honey don't look
so sad
We can still have a honeymoon Is that so bad?

I don't wanna marry you, Honey
But I wouldn't mind a honeymoon
