"DISTANCE"

Visit "DISTANCE" on MotoLyrics.com

Instead of a rose, a drop of tears blooms proudly Don't say things like "Our meeting was a mistake"
Under the street lights, even if we part, nothing but one memory
The voice calling my name was quietly always near me.
"Goodbye" was said in a miserable manner for the sake of the both of us Our departing was unstoppable, the dream only couldn't come true.
Under the street lights, this light, nothing but one
bond,
Even far apart, even if we forget, it surely won't ever change.

This is all, the pain of my tearful cry will change into strenght
Under the street lights, even if we part, nothing but one
memory
The voice calling my name was quietly always near me
Under the street lights, this light, nothing but one
bond,
Even far apart, even if we forget, it surely won't ever
change
