I'm not one to take things slow. But faster come. Then faster go.

Later on. Then I might know performances from cameos.

Patience now is all I ask . stopping short to make it last.
Holding on. But sticking fast. Page by page. Task by task

Maybe tonight I will say what I have to say.

Turn out the light; I'm not giving anything away.

Maybe tonight. Maybe tonight.

This is now - that was then. Take a stake. Make amends.

Love and hate begin to blend. A brand new start. A brand new end.

I just need another hour. This little room is our estate.

I will promise you the power. Anything if you can wait.

Just you wait until I get you home.

Then you'll know - yes you'll know, Know , know.
