All the white lights falling

The blue lights are falling
Night is warm
Came down with a promise
I have my best shirt on
I lower myself now
It is a way to forgot
Of last year's failure

Will the streetlights reflect me well enough
Am I transparent when I am clean
Will the darkness around me be so strong
That there is no way I can be seen

Boys will we become
Heroes of this night
Or am I just happy
Whenever not sober

I cleaned myself well
Clean today

Will the streetlights reflect me well enough
Am I transparent when I am clean
Will the darkness around me be so strong
That there is no way I can be seen

And when I pause for a breath
I see millions like me

Will the streetlights reflect me well enough
Am I transparent when I am clean
Will the darkness around me be so strong
That there is no way I can be seen
