(november 92)

I stand as I cry

Mourning in the Silent rain

Death will light my Burden

Endless is my Sorrow

Gateways so Dark

All these years of Dying

Gone are dreams of Velvet Voices

I am you, we were one

Vast are fields I walk

Where sorrow never dies

The Sky unities with the Blackened Rain

Summon with my Tears

Now descend on WinterWings

My withering Soul.

Let me Die.

Gateways of Bereavement

A Temple of guilt

Falling Deep

Embraced in Grief

My withering soul

Let me Die

Farewell life and all I died for now my time is over on Earth

Another journey has begun

Alone I died, not praying for mercy

nor praying for Salvation

A lonely Journey in a Darkened Dream

Time has come to spread my Wings

Slow...

Descending from a Silent sky

Death comes to take me away

And from the Gateways you hear me cry...

...I love you...
