Loving mother
He has come
To take your son

Listen
How he strides the earth
When only animals are awake
When the shattering of ideals begin
God of ruin
Will come to you

Loving mother
He has come
To take your son

Loving mother
He has come
To take your son

Fallen
From the faded sky
Nephilim comes through foul air
And when morals will decline
God of ruin
Will come to you

Lalalalalala lalala lalalalalalala lalala

Loving mother
He has come
To take your son

Loving mother
He has come
To take your son
