

Catch 22 "Regression"

I love you, I miss you
Just give me my ineptitude
And I will change my attitude
I'm whining and pining
Sweet embraces never known
A harvest from a seed unsown

Time is on my side
And I understand my life
Make a choice to move onward
But I admit, I can't commit
And I will not decide

I love you, I miss you
Just give me my ineptitude
And I will change my attitude
I'm whining and pining
Sweet embraces never known
A harvest from a seed unsown

Dim light shines brightly in pitch black
Bright enough to find my own way back
Push forward or you might lose your chances
Or take less with me, regress with me
And savor true romance

Come take a walk with me
But if you do, there is no turning back
Come take a walk with me
But if you do, there is no turning back
