"A Perfect World"

Shadows fall
Across the land
Prophets say
The end's at hand
More bad news
Everywhere I turn
But in your arms
It's a perfect world

Rebels rage
And lions roar
Everyday
It's a brand new war
Lines are crossed
And bombs are hurled
But in your arms
It's a perfect world

When your love
Wraps around me tight
I believe in paradise
There's one place
Where my heart's secure
Here in your arms
It's a perfect world

Homeless hearts
On every street
Desperate eyes
Of poverty
No refuge left
On God's green earth
But in your arms
It's a perfect world
