

Kate Campbell

"Waiting For The Weather To Break"

Visit "Waiting For The Weather To Break" on MotoLyrics.com

The fairest skies I've ever seen
Were in your eyes the day we met
The wind was hard and full of rain
A storm I never will forget
It came on fast and caught us by surprise
A raging flood swept us away
We hid beneath a hollow tree
Waiting for the weather to break

A veil of silence thick as fog
Moves between us like a cloud
How'd we ever get to where we are
And can we find our way out
Now we lie in a bed of years
Under this blanket we made
And here we are again
Waiting for the weather to break

The stars are shining blue in the distance
Calling us away
The storm in me and you once so dark
Will all be clear some day
Waiting for the weather to break

Visit Kate Campbell page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.