Kate Ceberano - Courage

Kate Ceberano / Mark Goldenberg

Sometimes I drown in my own moods

If I feel wrong or just confused

You never desert me

And if I make the wrong impression

If Ive mistaken your intention

You know I didn't mean to

When I get dark and overcome

You humour me through till the clouds have gone

I never embarrass you

Your ways are sneaking up on me

You give me truth that I can see

Youve got some courage to love me

At times I am my worst enemy

Instead of making me wrong you hold me in your arms

You make the bed and you lie me down

You tell me stories until I am calm

You don't patronise me

Your ways are sneaking up on me

You give me truth that I can see

Youve got some courage to love me

Love me ohhhoooo

aahh hhaaa

Your ways are sneaking up on me

You give me truth that I can see

Youve got some courage to love me x 5
