Kate Ceberano - Shy Baby

Kate Ceberano & Daniel Knight

Shine through paper walls

Transparent I seem, to see all

All the things you like to say

Why don't you say it anyway

you're stopping the waterflow

You stick your finger in any hole

Whyd you do it

Why are you obsessed in holding it still

Shy baby, cry baby don't get no nothing done

Shy baby, cry baby don't get no sympathy from me yeah, don't get no sympathy you're charming, charasmatic you're flirting but so easily lead

Ive been had, Ive been done before don't kid a kidder my friend you're coping but compromising you're hoping, still trying to find

All the pieces deep inside of you

So what else is new

Shy baby, cry baby don't get no nothing done

Shy baby, cry baby wont get no sympathy from me

Shy baby, cry baby

Shy baby, cry baby

Shine, shine, shine through

Shy, shy, shy baby

Shine through

Wont get nothing from nothing done

Shine through baby

Shy baby.
