I'm on my knees, only memories
I left for me to hold
Don't know how but I'll get by
Slowly pour myself together

I'll get through this

There's no escape, so keep me safe
This feels so unreal

Nothing comes easily
Fill this empty space
Nothing is like it seems
Turn my grief to grace

I feel the cold, loneliness unfold
Like from another world
Come what may, I won't fade away
But I know, I might change

Nothing comes easily
Fill this empty space
Nothing is like it was
Turn my grief to grace

Nothing comes easily
When do I begin?
Nothing can bring me peace
I've lost everything

I just wanna feel your embrace
