Waving goodbye in the afternoon
Leaving a sigh cause we know that soon
All that we'll have is this photograph
Remember before we were even friends
Funny to think this is how it ends
No going back, back along this path

Thanks for today
Your smile goes along way
Now let's leave before the tide comes back in
No one's to blame
And there's nothing left to say
Concerning who we were and how we are

Some of the days used to seem so long
Having to face knowing they were wrong
And there were times, we didn't always get along
Then I think of you when it's dark and late
Lying beneath the stars in space

Thanks for today
Your smile goes along way
Now let's leave before the tide comes back in
No one's to blame
Concerning who we were and how we are

I wouldn't change a thing (I wouldn't change a thing)
I'd do it all again (I'd do it all again)
'Cept maybe then I'd understand

So, thanks for today
Your smile goes along way
Now let's leave before the tide comes back in
No one's to blame
Concerning who we were and how we are

Learning every sunny day gets dark
Concerning who we were and how we are
