Verse 1:

Sugar coat every conversation
Masquerades require concentration
Buy a disguise for tonight
But I can read your eyes
Skeletons hiding in your closet
You lock the door
Prayed I wouldn't see it
Your tongue is like a double-edged sword
I can't believe your words anymore

Pre-Chorus:

Why?
I never knew that you would be the one to make me cry

Chorus:

And now you're caught in a lie
Where is your fake alibi?
I can't believe all this time
You were the one on my mind
Don't even try to deny
You know that you crossed the line
I saw what you tried to hide
Skeletons don't lie

Verse 2:

Breaking down, didn't think I'd find out
Understand this is where we stand now
Oh, the nerve choosing her
Well take what you deserve
Promises vanish until empty
Fallen angel, why didn't anyone save me?
Your tongue is like a double-edged sword
I can't believe your words anymore

Pre-chorus:

Why?
I never knew that you would be the one to make me cry

Chorus:

And now you're caught in a lie
Where is your fake alibi

I can't believe all this time
You were the one on my mind
Don't even try to deny
You know that you crossed the line
I saw what you tried to hide
Skeletons don't lie

Bridge:

Did you ever know, did you ever know that I loved, I loved you?
Now you'll never know, now you'll never know what it'd be like to live life in my arms

Pre-chorus:

Why?
I never knew that you would be the one to make me cry

Chorus:

And now you're caught in a lie
Where is your fake alibi
I can't believe all this time
You were the one on my mind
Don't even try to deny
You know that you crossed the line
I saw what you tried to hide

Chorus:

And now you're caught in a lie
Where is your fake alibi
I can't believe all this time
You were the one on my mind
Don't even try to deny
You know that you crossed the line
I saw what you tried to hide
Skeletons don't lie
