Everything you said,
Was a lie, you never told me truth,
Everyone you met, was as vacuous as you.
You want to be someone, but you have nothing to give
You have been responsible and we cannot forgive,

Everything you said,
Was a lie, you never told the truth,
Everyone you met was as vacuous as you.
You want to be someone, but you have nothing to give
You have been responsible and we cannot forgive,

Anywhere I want to go,
I'm sick and tired of feeling low,
You're not the one I want
But I will

I am stupid,
I am
I have nothing to believe
I am just a product of a nation built on sleep

Anywhere I want to go,
I'm sick and tired of feeling low,
You're not the one I want
But I will
