You used to be so far away
Now I can almost touch
I can taste the metal
Feel the gun in my mouth

Who will change my life?
How can I trust?
Who will break my heart?
And how can I rest as I must?

His leg twitches, he looks up
Which one will he fuck?
Takes her by the hand and smiles
You are mine tonight

Forget about the smell
Leave yourself behind
There is something in the air
That reminds you of your life

You used to be so far away
Now I can almost touch
I can taste the metal
Feel the gun in my mouth

Who will change my life?
How can I trust?
Who will break my heart?
And how can I rest as I must?
