The first time I saw you I still remember
When you passed me by
Love at first sight that day in September
When I was so shy

The way you smiled, it turned me around
You spin my life upside down
And for a while time stood still
'Cause I couldn't believe this was real

So put your hands up in the sky
Come on and celebrate our love tonight
Yeah, put your hands up right into mine
'Cause baby love reigns divine

The first time I kissed you, I still remember
I gave all I had
We were out of control that night in September
Yeah, we were bad

Held each other so tight
You made me shiver in sheer delight
I felt the earth move as time stood still
No, I couldn't believe this was real

So put your hands up in the sky
Come on and celebrate our love tonight
Yeah, put your hands up right into mine
'Cause baby love reigns divine

So put your hands up in the sky
Come on and celebrate our love tonight
You gotta live one day at a time
'Cause baby love reigns divine

So put your hands up in the sky
Yeah, put your hands up right into mine

So put your hands up in the sky
Come on and celebrate our love tonight
Yeah, put your hands up right into mine
'Cause baby love reigns divine

So put your hands up in the sky
Come on and celebrate our love tonight
You gotta live one day at a time
'Cause baby love reigns divine

You gotta live one day at a time
'Cause baby love reigns divine
