If I asked you to stay
Would you give me forever?
If I begged for your kisses
Would you give me more?

If I opened my heart
And stood naked before you
Would you know how to stand there
And look in my eyes?

Is it meant for just you
Or meant for someone else?

How can I, how can I be sure
That you love me like I love you?
How can I, how can I really believe
That you're gonna love me like I love you?

If I opened my heart
And stood naked before you
Would you know how to stand there
And look in my eyes?

How can I, how can I be sure
That you love me like I love you?
How can I, how can I really believe
That you're gonna love me like I love you?

I won't lie about it
Not a day goes by
I don't think about it
Always on my mind

Do I dare to trust you?
Do I trust myself?
Is it meant for just you
Or meant for someone else?
