I used to think that love
Could never take a hold
Spin a line around me

It feels so natural
I'll give into you
Give into my needs

But clearly I'm not
Thinking too straight
Honest and true
I'm not really handling this
What else can I do

But surrender
Don't be tender
My heart's on the line
Don't be tender
Don't make me all
What can't be mine

I surrender
Don't be tender
My heart's on the line
Don't be tender
Don't make me all
What can't be mine

It's all so bittersweet
Your touch lingers on
Even after you're gone

There's no escape for me
I'll give into you
Give into my needs

But clearly I'm not
Thinking too straight
Honest and true
I'm not really handling this
What else can I do

I surrender
Don't be tender
My heart's on the line
Don't be tender
Don't make me all
What can't be mine

Do you miss me, baby?
Do you miss me, baby?
Do you love me, baby
Enough to let me go?

But surrender
Don't be tender
My heart's on the line
Don't be tender
Don't make me all
What can't be mine

But surrender
Don't be tender
My heart's on the line
Don't be tender
Don't make me all
What can't be mine

Do you miss me, baby?
Do you miss me, baby?
Do you love me, baby
Enough to let me go?

Do you miss me, baby?
Do you miss me, baby?
Do you love me, baby
Enough to let me go?
